

Air Supply Rocks The Venetian Macao

Nostalgia filled the air at The Venetian Theatre as the Hall of Fame inductees performed their biggest hits

(Macao, Dec. 12, 2015) – International rock group Air Supply returned to The Venetian® Macao on Saturday night with Air Supply Live in Concert. The duo last performed at The Venetian Macao in 2012 and once again they brought their unique rock tunes and ballads to The Venetian Theatre tonight to the delight of fans. The Macao concert is part of their worldwide tour to mark their 40th anniversary.

Singer-songwriter and guitarist Graham Russell and lead vocalist Russell Hitchcock drew applause from The Venetian Theatre crowd as they took to the stage and the noise continued to grow as they played their most recognizable songs. They performed all of their classic hits including “I Adore You,” “Goodbye” and “Sweet Dreams”.

Air Supply has sold millions of records and their fans spans several generations and cultures. Tonight’s concert marked the fourth time the duo has played at The Venetian Macao and Sands Macao, having performed back in 2007, 2008 and 2012.
