Sands China Welcomes the Year of the Horse with Traditional Ceremonies and Lion Dances

Executives take part in Chinese New Year ceremonies at multiple properties

(Macao, Jan. 31, 2014) – The first day of the new Chinese New Year saw Sands China Ltd. executives gather to participate in what has become an annual custom at Sands China properties – traditional ceremonies and rituals to welcome the new year of the Chinese lunar calendar.

Ceremonies at Sands[®] Macao, The Venetian[®] Macao and Sands[®] Cotai Central welcomed an auspicious year as Sands China executives took part in traditional rituals ushering in the Year of the Horse. Executives participated in a worship ceremony and eye-dotting ceremony at each property, followed by a traditional lion dance, which visitors were able to enjoy. Executives also joined company employees to bless the New Year together, with ceremonies and lion dances in the back-of-house staff areas of each property.

Visitors and guests will find a variety of exciting Chinese New Year festivities and promotions with “Seasons of Prosperity” at Sands China’s integrated resort city – Cotai Strip Resorts Macao. Aside from enticing activities and giveaways at Shoppes, such as limited-edition gift sets and daily lion dances, and also sumptuous festive menus at various restaurants, The Venetian Macao’s outdoor lagoon area features fantastic entertainment and auspicious activities for visitors and locals of all ages, such as uniquely-decorated fibreglass horses, a 3-D light and sound show, a beautiful carousel and game booths.
