Sands China Executives Celebrate Chinese New Year with Team Members Across the Company

Lucky draws giving away cash prizes over MOP 170,000 in total

(Macao, Feb. 6, 2014) – Sands China Ltd.'s senior executives led by President and Chief Executive Officer Edward Tracy visited the team dining areas at Sands® Macao, The Venetian® Macao and Sands® Cotai Central respectively Thursday, delivering auspicious wishes and blessings and also hosting several lucky draws for all team members across the three properties, which gave away 39 exciting cash prizes worth over MOP 170,000 in total, including a grand cash prize of MOP 88,888. The celebrations, joined by some 1,800 team members, took place on the 7th day of the Lunar New Year, also known as Renri, meaning "everyone's birthday" according to the Chinese traditions.

"We are committed to foster a harmonious environment for our team members at work," said Antonio Ramirez, Senior Vice President of Human Resources, Venetian Macau Limited. "It is thus important to show our support and gratitude to them in this major traditional Chinese festival and also celebrate the festive joy together."

The much-awaited lucky draws thrilled the exciting crowds of team members at the team dining areas. A total of 39 employees were blessed by the God of Fortune and took home attractive cash prizes. The luckiest winner of the day was a dealer who brought home the grand cash prize of MOP 88,888. This overjoyed team member revealed that he will spend the money on a vacation with his family.

Team members were surprised by the senior executives' appearances and showed enthusiasm for their visits. Tracy and other executives also participated in the fai chun writing activity and expressed their Chinese New Year blessings on the red papers. The blessing papers were then hung on the Peach Blossom Tree backdrops at the three properties' back-of-house areas, together with those previously written by over 3,000 team members from across the company.
