Record Chinese New Year Visitation at Sands China Properties 1.8 million visitors and 100 per cent hotel occupancy

The seven-day Spring Festival surge in visitation was likewise reflected in increased hotel occupancy rates.

“With over 9,000 hotel rooms on offer in Sands China’s portfolio, we are pleased to see that our broad selection of accommodation was at or near full capacity almost the entire week,” said Gunther Hatt, Executive Vice President of Operations, Venetian Macau Limited. “We have so much to offer visitors, whether here for business or leisure, and we are very pleased to see so many people enjoying our integrated resorts during Chinese New Year. With Sands China’s unparalleled integrated resort offering of luxury accommodation, superstar entertainment and celebrity events, duty-free retail, exquisite dining options and spectacular exhibitions, we are proud to continue contributing to the diversification of Macao’s tourism industry, helping develop the city into a world centre of tourism and leisure.”
