

Conrad Macao, Cotai Central Recognised By "2014-2015 City Traveler Best Hotel Awards"

MACAO – 23 October 2014 – Conrad Macao, Cotai Central has once again been recognised for its outstanding suites and amenities. The luxury hotel received the award for 'The Best Luxury Business Hotel (Non-Shanghai)' at '2014-2015 City Traveler Best Hotel Awards' in Shanghai on 16 October. The announcement was organised by 'City Traveler Magazine', its rating system is based on valuable reviews and opinions from inspectors who travel around China to experience and rate the very best hotels, restaurants and spas for their readers.

Established in 2008 in Shanghai, City Traveler is a high-end luxury magazine targeting female travellers, offering its readers current news and information on business and leisure travel, celebrity travel, health and beauty, and gourmet food.

Set against a backdrop of world heritage listed cultural sites; the multi-award award winning Conrad Macao hotel offers contemporary accommodation for sophisticated travellers. With 636 guestrooms and Suites in a 40-storey tower including 206 luxurious suites overlooking the Cotai Strip, guests can enjoy amenities such as digital entertainment systems, iPad docks, Nespresso coffee machines and spa-influenced 'his and hers' amenities in every room.

Guests can relax and unwind in the hotel's Health Club, take a swim in the outdoor swimming pool or book a pampering spa treatment at Bodhi Spa. If guests are looking to enjoy some retail therapy then they can explore more than 100 luxury designer and lifestyle shops within the Sands Cotai Central integrated resort or walk across to The Shoppes to enjoy an additional 500 stores. Guests are also spoilt for choice when it comes to dining – whether it is contemporary Chinese cuisine at the hotel's signature restaurant Dynasty 8, international and Asian buffets at Grand Orbit or the array of international and local restaurants located within the resort complex, there is something to suit every palette.
