Extreme Sports Legend Travis Pastrana Getting Ready for Nitro Circus Live at The Venetian Macao

World freestyle champion to debut at Cotai Arena Aug. 9-10

(Macao, Aug. 4, 2014) – Legendary extreme sports icon, 17 times X Games medallist and founder of Nitro Circus Travis Pastrana from the U.S. is going to make his first appearance in Macao at The Venetian® Macao's Cotai Arena at the brand new death defying shows Travis Pastrana's Nitro Circus Live Aug. 9-10, 2014. Action sports enthusiasts will definitely not want to miss the chance to witness up-close the seemingly-impossible talent of Pastrana, whose accomplishments have included world freestyle champion at the age of 14, five-time U.S. amateur motocross champion, two-time Canadian amateur motocross champion, youngest rider ever to represent the U.S at the Motocross des Nations in France, 125cc pro national outdoor champion, 125cc East Supercross Series champion, and most successful competitor in the history of X Games freestyle motocross.

Leading his Nitro Circus to return to the Cotai Arena for its second performance, the 29-year-old extreme sports superstar found his passion in motocross, winning five Loretta Lynn National Amateur crowns beginning 1992. At 15 years old Pastrana reached further in 1999 by winning his first pro race (125cc) and becoming the youngest contestant to take home a gold medal in freestyle at the X Games. The dedicated athlete has also gained a significant place in the social media world, being followed by 5.6 million fans on Facebook, 877,000 fans on Twitter and 670,000 fans on Instagram.

Pastrana changed the action sports World and became a global icon as he dominated the Freestyle Motocross event at X Games at an unbelievably young age. In 2006, Pastrana performed the first ever FMX double backflip at X Games LA, a trick that is still to this day the most dangerous stunt in all of action sports. Pastrana has also performed such unbelievable, world first stunts as jumping from a plane without a parachute, and jumping his dirtbike into the Grand Canyon. Wherever Travis goes, he breaks records.

Nitro Circus Live showcases over 40 of the world's best action sports athletes performing daring and often record-breaking tricks in freestyle motocross, BMX and skateboarding, along with heart-stopping stunts on unique contraptions rarely attempted outside of the Nitro Circus family. Audiences will see the unbelievable 'Hole in One' where fearless riders launch 50 feet into the air off the Gigant-A-Ramp and attempt to land with pinpoint accuracy inside an inflatable zorb ball. Then add in a host of mind-bending new tricks on a cavalcade of ridiculous, never-before-seen contraptions off the jacked-up Nitro Gigant-A-Ramp, which is 10-feet bigger, and launches riders up to 20-feet further than ever before.
