

Legendary Broadway Musical CATS Stuns Audience at The Venetian Theatre in Macao

There is still time to seize this rare opportunity to experience the wonder of this extravaganza at The Venetian Macao

(Macao, March 6, 2015) – The tribe of much-loved Jellicle cats from the legendary show CATS, which was one of the longest running shows on Broadway, graced the stage at The Venetian[®] Macao's Venetian Theatre Friday. The combination of the magnificent score, inspired choreography and fantastic story left the full house thoroughly entertained. CATS will continue to delight audiences until March 15, so musical lovers still have time to get tickets for this wonderful show.

With a plot based on T.S Eliot's "Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats" and award-winning music composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, CATS sees a tribe of Jellicle cats gather together for the annual Jellicle Ball. One by one they tell their stories for the amusement of Old Deuteronomy who has to choose one of the cats to journey to the Heaviside Layer to be reborn into a new life.

There was a buzz in the air at The Venetian Macao as the first performance of CATS at The Venetian Theatre came to an end. The theatregoers were clearly impressed by what they had seen as the excited chatter that filled the air as they left the theatre proved. The opening of the first performance of CATS was welcomed by long applause from the audience who were clearly excited to see the amazing costumes, the fantastic sing-and-dance routines and the wonderful characters, including the rebellious Rum Tum Tugger, the smart and mysterious Mr. Mistoffelees, the kind and motherly Jennyanydots and the once glamorous Grizabella, who sings the show's most famous song "Memory," the show is famous for.

Bringing an authentic Broadway show like CATS to The Venetian Macao is a clear example of Sands China's multi-tiered entertainment strategy in action, which aims to cater to a broader customer base and further diversify entertainment offerings in Macao. The staging of CATS at The Venetian Theatre is the first in a series of Broadway shows coming to Sands Resorts Cotai Strip Macao, including another major musical coming in June.
