

Press Release For Immediate Release 15 December 2022

MUJI's First Macao Store Opens at The Venetian Macao 16 December

A 21,000 sqft daily goods department store that supports all aspects of everyday life

Since the establishment in 1980, MUJI has been reflecting on the relationship between human beings, objects, and nature, with an aspiration to create practical, quality products at reasonable prices. MUJI products, born from a rational manufacturing process, are like empty vessels that articulate simplicity and emptiness, yielding universality that embraces the feelings and thoughts of all people. The comfort and convenience brought by MUJI products have gained resonance and recognition from many customers. As of August 2022, MUJI operated over 1,072 stores globally, including 493 domestic stores in Japan and 579 overseas stores. MUJI started setting foothold in Hong Kong and Mainland China in 2001 and 2005 respectively. To share the ideology of "a simple, pleasant life" with more customers, MUJI opens its first store in Macao to support people living in the area by providing apparel, household goods, food, and on-the-go essentials that meet the needs of every aspect in day-to-day living.

Operated by MUJI Hong Kong, the first MUJI store in Macao will open at The Venetian[®] Macao on 16 December 2022 at 11 am. The Venetian Macao is chosen for the opening of the first store since it is a large-scale shopping complex well known to locals and visitors, and this allows MUJI to reach out to customers of all ages who have different personalities and lifestyles, and cater to their daily needs.

With a total floor area of 21,000 square feet, the new store is the largest retail store in Hong Kong and Macao region. Based on MUJI's ideology of "a simple, pleasant life", besides offering the most comprehensive merchandise assortment from the users' perspective, the new store also features a home living thematic display area so customers can find inspirations for living well under a spacious, comfortable store environment.

"Nature and Modern Living" as store design concept

With "Nature and Modern Living" as the store design concept, the new store aims to convey MUJI's philosophy of "simplicity and "without unnecessary features or decorations" in a visualized, sensible way through an interior design emphasizing on the use of different materials and merchandise display. The new store has two floors—on the lower floor, natural materials such as wood, stone, and metal are used to reveal their original and processed forms, allowing customers to re-discover nature, the origin of every objects, and explore its possibilities; on the upper floor, artificial industrial materials such as metal plates and steel pipes are combined with natural materials to create new textures, together with the open ceiling design, aiming to bring a store ambience that presents MUJI's view of nature in a way that customers have not experienced before.

A "One-stop Daily Goods Department Store" supporting all aspects of daily life

Clothing, food, accommodation, and travelling are the basics of life. MUJI continuously creates and improves products through three core principles—material selection, process streamlining, and packaging simplification, bringing customers over 7,000 simple-designed, functional daily goods at reasonable prices for a convenient, comfortable life. The new store features the most comprehensive merchandise assortment ranging from men's, ladies' and children's wear, MUJI Labo, household goods, personal care items, food, to MUJI to GO on-the-go essentials, taking care of every aspect of daily life.

Features a home living thematic display area to bring inspirations for modern homes

How to make the best use of limited space for a comfortable home living has always been a common concern of today's customers. The new store will feature a 700-square-feet home living thematic display area, where simple-designed, versatile, and compatible MUJI furniture and storage items are arranged together to present the scenes of living room, dining room, and bedroom, demonstrating the comfort and peace of mind brought by a simple, pleasant life for inspirations about modern home furnishings.

Signature Items of MUJI – Companion to Daily Life

Life is made up of everyday interactions between people and objects. Through meticulous observation from daily life, MUJI examine products through three principles – material selection, process streamlining and packaging simplification based on users' point of view, bringing more than 7,000 daily necessities that are designed with simplicity in mind, functional, and reasonably priced to cater everyday needs. The new store offers the most comprehensive merchandise assortment, taking care of every aspect of daily life including clothing, food, accommodation, and traveling for a convenient, comfortable life.

Apparel

With an eye for comfort and functionality, MUJI wear is mainly made from natural materials to meet seasonality and daily living needs, bringing daily wear suitable for going out or wearing at home.

MUJI to GO Travel Essentials

Travel is an extension of daily life. Instead of preparing specially for the journey, using lightweight and functional travel accessories will make every journey as comfortable as everyday life. MUJI to GO was born from this idea.

The store features a home living thematic display area, brining inspirations to interior arrangement of modern homes. Based on MUJI's ideology of "a simple, pleasant life", the area showcases how to use the simple-design, functional MUJI Furniture and Storage Units flexibly together to organise living space and set up a comfortable home with sufficient storage capacity, bringing interior arrangement and furnishing inspirations to customers.

Living and Dining Room

Designed with "Life for Two" in mind, the area demonstrates utilising a limited space of 400 square feet. Wooden Stacking Shelves are used as the main furniture to construct the entire living room and dining room. Available in oak wood and walnut wood, the Wooden Stacking Shelves are sturdy, durable and have natural wood grain. Designed in standardised modular size, the shelves can be expanded vertically or horizontally or added with additional layers for assembling into a TV cabinet, storage rack, or home partition while ensuring storage capacity, demonstrating the versatility of MUJI Furniture for long-term use. Light-coloured furniture can bring a bright, fresh ambience to the home; with soft lighting, you will feel warm and relaxed.

Bedroom

Steel Unit Shelf is used to construct this 200 square feet bedroom. By combing different layers, accessories and parts, you can use it as a clothes hanger, display shelf or bookcase for better use of the corner area in the bedroom. Pair with MUJI Storage Units and turn it into an open storage system in which you can store possessions in an organised way according to the frequency of use, allowing easy and quick access to frequently used items to keep your bedroom clean and tidy.

can bring a harmonious, unified visual effect so occupants can feel more comfortable when staying home. The Walnut Furniture Display Area is about 300 square feet and demonstrates how to assemble different cabinets and parts into a storage or TV cabinet for keeping items used in everyday life. A dark-coloured leather sofa can add elegance and calmness to the living room; with a height of only 60cm, the sofa makes the living room look roomier. Sleep Experience Zone

To ensure quality sleeping time, besides changing your daily habits, using suitable bedding goods can also improve sleep quality. A 200 square feet sleep experience zone is available for customers to try on different pillows, mattresses, and bed frames for selecting suitable bedding goods based on personal sleeping habits and bedroom space. Enjoy better sleep with seasonal bed linens with a comfortable touch and soft colour.
