Londoner Grand Secures ‘Best Hotel – Macao’ Award for Second Consecutive Year at TTG Travel Awards

Accolade highlights exclusive resort’s commitment to continued excellence

(Macao, Sept. 25, 2026) – Londoner Grand® has once again been awarded the esteemed distinction of “Best Hotel - Macao” at the TTG Travel Awards for its consistent delivery of distinctive guest experiences. Organised annually by TTG Asia, the 2026 winners are considered the top Asia-Pacific travel sector performers as voted by readers of TTG Travel Trade Publishing’s major publications.

John Burger, Senior Vice President of Resort Operations, Sands China Ltd. said, “We are deeply honoured to receive this coveted award, which recognises Londoner Grand’s place in luxury hospitality in Macao. It also validates our team’s unwavering dedication to excellence and motivates us to innovate, exceed expectations and continue to make meaningful contributions to the travel industry.”

Nestled within The Londoner® Macao integrated resort, Londoner Grand is reserved for A-list guests seeking bespoke accommodation, exceptional amenities, and unparalleled services as delivered by the hotel’s highly trained A-team. Inspired by London’s prestigious Mayfair district, the hotel’s 2,405 elegant town-house-style rooms and suites evoke the grandeur of quintessential Georgian architecture. Its most luxurious option is the six spacious two-bedroom pool suites within Paiza Grand at The Londoner Macao. Discerning guests can also enjoy award-winning Hampton Court, the hotel’s atmospheric residence club known for its extravagant buffets.
