NBA Fan Day 2026 Ignites The Venetian Arena with Basketball Thrills and Star Power

Over 11,000 fans experience an elite sports-entertainment fusion featuring NBA stars and pop icons EVAN, Keung To, and MC Jin.

(Macao, Oct. 12, 2026) – Sands China Ltd. welcomed over 11,000 passionate basketball fans to The Venetian Arena for NBA Fan Day 2026 on Oct. 10. Held as part of The NBA China Games 2026, the action-packed celebration united superstar players from the Dallas Mavericks and the Houston Rockets with celebrity guests and fans, blending world-class athleticism, interactive experiences and top-tier musical performances.

Hosted by hip-hop artist MC Jin, the day kicked off with a high-octane act by K-pop star EVAN. The energy surged further as NBA stars stepped onto the court to a roaring welcome: Mavericks star-players Kyrie Irving, Cooper Flagg and Morez Johnson Jr. joined Houston Rockets standouts Kevin Durant, Alperen Şengün and Amen Thompson.

The star-studded lineup immediately transitioned into interactive fan engagement. Lucky fans teamed up with NBA players and celebrities for a series of competitions, including a fast-paced skills challenge, a sharpshooting three-point contest, and a dramatic shooting stars challenge. Capping off the festivities, a team of elite professional dunkers stunned the audience with a gravity-defying slam dunk show. Between the on-court action, the arena stayed lively with energetic performances from team mascots and Sands China's own team of entertainers. The fan day ultimately culminated in a vibrant closing musical set by Hong Kong singer-actor and MIRROR member Keung To.

The success of NBA Fan Day 2026 reflects Sands China's unwavering commitment to supporting Macao's 'City of Sports' aspirations and boosting the region's sports profile. Moving forward, the company aims to attract even more premier global athletic and entertainment spectacles to the city.
