Sands Resorts Macao Wins ‘Best Integrated Resort (Asia)’ at Travel Weekly Asia Readers’ Choice Awards 2026

(Macao, Oct. 6, 2026) – Sands® Resorts Macao, the iconic integrated resort city developed by Sands China Ltd., was named Best Integrated Resort (Asia) at the prestigious Travel Weekly Asia Readers’ Choice Awards 2026, in recognition of its world-class hospitality and unique experiences for business and leisure travellers.

John Burger, Senior Vice President of Resort Operations, Sands China Ltd. said, “We are very grateful to be voted best in class by Travel Weekly Asia’s industry readership. This award reflects our team’s dedication to delivering seamless, memorable resort experiences to every guest and stands as a testament to our exceptional, must-visit properties.”

Comprising three interconnected landmark properties – The Venetian® Macao, The Parisian® Macao and The Londoner® Macao – Sands Resorts Macao features a diverse range of accommodation, including seven hotels with Forbes Five-Star ratings, more than 150 dining options, including Michelin-starred restaurants, approximately 750 duty free shops, and immersive entertainment. This award-winning destination is also home to one of Asia’s premier convention and exhibition centres, plus state-of-the-art multipurpose arenas, making it a preferred choice for major events.

The Travel Weekly Asia Readers’ Choice Awards honour international travel operators that demonstrate exceptional innovation, excellence and commitment to service, with winners voted by travel and hospitality industry professionals.
