Sands China Co-organises Inclusive Community Event with UGAMM

Supporting Peng On Tung Charity Foundation with donations for 17th consecutive year

(Macao, Oct. 21, 2026) – Sands China is committed to fulfilling its corporate social responsibility by extending care to the community and actively supporting disadvantaged groups. The 2026 Sands China Charity Donation and the opening ceremony of the ‘Love & Inclusivity for All Ages’ Activity Series was held on Saturday, sponsored by Sands China and co-organised by the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance Service Centre and the Ngai Chun Centre – both under the General Union of Neighbourhood Associations of Macau (UGAMM).

Sands China donated MOP 240,000 to the Peng On Tung Charity Foundation at the event. It is Sands China’s 17th consecutive annual donation to Peng On Tung; the donation backs the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance programme and related elderly care services, assisting more seniors in need to obtain adequate support. To date, the programme has benefitted nearly 29,000 seniors. The event also brought together 200 seniors and young volunteers for interactive activities, fostering respect and care for the elderly and promoting a community spirit of intergenerational harmony, mutual support and friendship.

Sands China’s donation will help subsidise 850 financially disadvantaged seniors to use the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance service and support the Charity Foundation’s extended care programmes for the elderly, such as home repair services under the Peng On Tung Maintenance Programme and haircut services under the Elderly Haircut Initiative. The donation cheque was presented at the ceremony to Chan Ka Leong, director-general of UGAMM, by Catherine Kong, Sands China’s vice president of corporate communications and community affairs.

Dr. Wilfred Wong, executive vice chairman of Sands China Ltd., said: “Sands China believes that a harmonious and inclusive community thrives on connections across generations, community care, and strong community ties. For the past 17 years, we have partnered with the General Union of Neighbourhood Associations of Macau to provide meaningful support for seniors. Through initiatives such as the Peng On Tung Maintenance Programme and the Elderly Haircut Initiative, we engage volunteers in community service that not only cares for the elderly, but also fosters intergenerational interaction and a spirit of mutual support, contributing to a more inclusive community. Our heartfelt gratitude goes to every mentor, trainee, and volunteer for their selfless dedication, bringing warmth and positive energy to the community. Looking ahead, Sands China will continue to uphold the spirit of Sands Cares, working hand in hand with various sectors of society to build a harmonious Macao together.”

Chan said: “As a long-term community partner of Sands China, we are grateful to the company for its support of the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance programme for 17 consecutive years. This programme has so far benefited nearly 29,000 people. This year, Sands China once again generously donated MOP 240,000 to the Peng On Tung Charity Foundation, which will be used to subsidise services for the financially disadvantaged and support both the Peng On Tung Maintenance Programme and the Elderly Haircut Initiative. In line with the SAR’s elderly care policy, the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance programme will use smart technology to enhance the well-being of seniors and help them enjoy their later years with peace of mind.”

The Peng On Tung Maintenance Programme, organised by the Charity Foundation, recruits volunteers who wish to serve the elderly and provides them with home repair skills training and on-site apprenticeships. Graduates of the programme can join the dedicated Peng On Tung Maintenance Team to provide home repair services to seniors in need. Since 2015, Sands China has been backing the training programme and home repair services for the elderly with financial difficulties. To date, the initiative has trained more than 280 volunteers and provided services for close to 4,500 seniors.

Each month, Sands China’s asset and facilities management teams arrange for technical volunteers to visit Peng On Tung users and provide home repair services for seniors in need. Furthermore, Peng On Tung’s Elderly Haircut Initiative teaches professional haircutting techniques to youth volunteers, cultivating in them a dedication to giving back to society. Graduates are able to regularly participate in the monthly “Scissor Friends” outreach activity to provide free haircuts to seniors. Sands China has been sponsoring the Elderly Haircut Initiative since 2015. To date, the programme has trained 435 young volunteers, who have collectively provided free haircut services to 3,700 seniors in need, extending care and strengthening bonds between younger and older generations in the Macao community.

The event, held on Saturday at the UGAMM Social Services Building, was officiated by Cheang Iek Seng, deputy director of the Department of Social Development of the Liaison

Office of the Central People's Government in the Macao SAR; Chan Ka Leong, director-general of UGAMM; Chan Chak In, head of the Division of Continuing Education of the Education and Youth Development Bureau of the Macao SAR; Hui Yun Teng, chief of the Care Assessment and Case Service Unit of the Senior Service Division of the Social Welfare Bureau of the Macao SAR Government; Leong Hong Sai, member of the Legislative Assembly of the Macao SAR and vice president of UGAMM; Lam Man Chi, deputy director-general and social service director of UGAMM; and Catherine Kong, vice president of corporate communications and community affairs of Sands China Ltd.

Some of the guests were invited to present certificates of appreciation to volunteers with outstanding dedication to the Peng On Tung Maintenance Programme and the Elderly Haircut Initiative, including Sands Cares Ambassadors and other volunteers, trainees and mentors, in recognition of their long-standing contributions to the local community.

On the same day, students from Escola dos Moradores de Macau, Pui Va Middle School, and Hou Kong Middle School made 200 aromatic mugwort sachets with seniors, assisted by Sands Cares Ambassadors. Working together gave participants an opportunity to connect, show care to each other and deepen mutual understanding, reflecting the spirit of intergenerational harmony. Seniors also received free haircuts from Elderly Haircut Initiative trainees at the event, which enlivened the warm atmosphere.

Established in 2009, the Peng On Tung Tele-Assistance Service Centre has provided reliable community services through its hotline, offering robust support to seniors living alone, elderly couples and other people in need. The centre also develops and provides welfare-related services for the elderly in an effort to foster a more caring environment for them.
